Validity Study on SNIE 33-60

Short-Term Prospects for Turkey

dated 19 July 1960

The key judgments in SNIE 33-60--that the military would return the government to civilian hands without relinquishing ultimate power, and that Turkey would remain aligned with the West--were borne out by events of the past year. However, the Republican People's Party was less successful in the 1961 elections than we estimated.
